It was long ago defeated. It is not now an issue in this contest." It must be remembered that a majority of the House at Washingion favors the Hobson resolution, but to pass it requires a vote of Torrent at 4:00 p. m. on July 23; two-thirds in the affirmative.

"What happened? When the anxious Congressman got together the Committee on Rules, of which he was a member, nine were present, and five Democrats voted against taking up the measure at this time because Representative Hobson had requested that it should not be considered until next fall when he believed a majority of two-thirds would vote in its favor. Four members of the Committee voted for immediate action, two being Republicans and two Democrats, one of these being Representa-tive Cantrill. All of the Republicans present voted with our Congressman, and of seven Dem ocrats, only one would come to his rescue.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce Claude M. Thomas as a candidate for Congress, from the Seventh Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Electi be held Soturday, August 1, 1914.

Cantrill is attempting to de- ator six years ago over Mr. Beckceive the temperance people. He ham, the Democratic nominee? promised them when in the race Because Bradley would vote and two years ago that he would vote did vote exactly as Mr. Cantrill 60 prohibit the shipment of lioutor into dry territory. Listen to his exact words:

"I have stood up before the temperance people and pledged them that I would vote for a bill that would prohibit carrying liquor into a dry territory."

He gets out of it by saying that he voted for the Davis amendment. Listen to Cantrill's exact ords again:

"The Davis Amendment said hat the man in wet territory ho shipped liquor into dry terstory should be fined from one fundred to five thousand dollars and imprisoned from thirty days two years in the penitentiary. voted for that amendment."

In the first place it was not exected that this amendment would pass. Look at it how deceptive it is. It says you cannot ship liquor from wet territory indo dry territory. It did not say should be unlawful to ship liquor from dry territory into dry territory. Thus you see had this mendment become a law, a man in one dry state with Government license, which he did not attempt to prohibit, could ship all the liquor he chose into another dry state Kentucky, being surrounded by two dry states, Tennessee and West Virginia, could have gotten all the liquor it wanted.

Again after the defeat of the Davis amendment, he had a vote on the Webb Kenyon bill and he voted against it. The Webb-Kenyon bill does prohibit as the State laws prohibit. It provides that the Federal law shall be in force as the State law is in force. The Webb-Kenyon bill has not been declared unconstitutional as some of the wets tell you; on the contrary it has been upheld by the courts. The defect of this taw is in the defect of the State laws. The Webb-Kenyon bill allows liquor shipped only on the same conditions that the State law allows it, but as the State law allows the shipment of liquor for private use, so does the Federal law. If the State law forhade the shipment of any liquor whatsoever, so would the Webb-Kenyon law. The object of the taill is to extend State rights a little further; just what Cantrill says he is for, yet he doesn't vote that way.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you. You can't make a mistake in taking

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Has Helped Thousands.
